TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Please visit www.collaborative.org.nz or the Practitioner training page at www.parentshop.co.nz for more information on the course.
- Bookings: fax the booking form attention Sue Bagshaw to 03 3641225, or phone 021355730 or ask to leave a message for Sue Bagshaw at 03 3640480.
- Please ensure that you tick the box next to your chosen course on the registration form and that your email address and telephone contact are written clearly so that we can contact you.
- To receive the special early-bird price, bookings need to be received and paid by the early-bird cut-off date for your course. Late payments will be charged full course fees.
- Your place in the course is secured with payment or upon issue of an invoice to your employer.
- You will be emailed your booking confirmation, with a licensing agreement form, after your booking has been processed. Also, a reminder email will be sent to you during the week of the course to confirm your placement, give you course location details and other information for the training day. If you do not receive these please contact us to ensure that your registration has been received.
- All participants must sign the licensing agreement and submit it when registering on the day of the course.
- Cancellations: Please let us know as soon as possible if you are unable to attend. If you cancel up to 3 weeks before the course, full course fees will be refunded. Cancellations within 3 weeks of the course will incur an administrative charge of 25%; there are no course transfers for courses in New Zealand. No refunds are available within seven days of the workshop, although you may (at Collaborative for YHD's discretion) send a colleague to replace you. You must contact us as early as possible to confirm these arrangements.
- In the unlikely event of the need to cancel or postpone any course due to insufficient registrations or other unforeseen circumstances, we will refund course fees in full.
- On the day: Please ensure you arrive at the venue at least 30 minutes before the advertised start times, to collect your manual and submit your signed licencing agreement.
- At the course you will receive your training manual, CD slideshow and session guidelines as a part of your course fees. Please note that 1-2-3 Magic or Adolescent books and DVDs are not included in the course fees (some people have already bought them) but books and DVDs are available for purchase on the day.
